Chukar Championship Rules

- Team captain must be a current Wern Valley member. Other team members do not need to be members
- Maximum of 4 hunters per team (teams can compete with less than 4 hunters)
- Teams cannot hire guide or dogs (must use dogs owned by team members). There are no restrictions to breed or number of dogs used
- Payouts are determined by percentages of total entries collected
  - 1st place pays 17.5%,
  - 2nd place pays 8.34%,
  - 3rd place pays 4.17%.
  - Based off these percentages, if maximum number of teams participate; 1st place will be paid $2,100, 2nd place will be paid $1,000, and 3rd place will be paid $500.
- 40 chukars will be planted per hunt. Each chukar harvested during time allowed will be worth 1 point. Only chukars will count as a point other birds harvested will not affect the score
- Absolutely no birds can be brought from outside the hunting area
- Your team, or any of its members cannot plant Chukars in Mid-Central for a personal hunt 48 hours before your run
- A Wern Valley employee will blow airhorn to signal start of the hunt. Hunters must check in at clubhouse no later than 1:45. One point will be deducted per each minute hunters are late checking in for score
- Hunters and dogs must remain in Mid-Central. Anyone found hunting outside of the Mid-Central hunting area will be immediately disqualified
- To retrieve a downed bird outside of mid-central, you must leave your gun in mid central and can go retrieve it with your dog.
  - To be clear; you must have flushed the bird out of mid-central shot it and it died outside the field. You can't see a bird outside of the field that is crippled or healthy and send your dog on the bird. Please do not abuse this rule!
- Teams can hunt more than one time but only one score (highest) will be recorded for the challenge
- Individuals can only participate on one team
- Maximum of 3 shells in gun during the competition
- If any ties occur, they will be broken by a 100-bird team flurry shoot
- Hunt dates will be picked on a first come first serve basis by the team captain
- Entrants that wish to cancel hunt will be refunded 70% of total received the remaining 30% will be forfeited to cover prize money
- All other club rules apply during the completion and please remember safety is the number one priority

If anyone on your team is caught breaking any of the rules your entire team will be disqualified
